New York State Farmland Protection Study to be released

USDA's National Agricultural Statistics Service, New York Field Office will issue a report on the results of the New York State Farmland Protection Survey at 8:30 a.m. Friday, March 19, 2010. This report is the results of a survey of participants enrolled in New York State's Farmland Protection Program. The survey was a collaboration of NASS, New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets and American Farmland Trust's New York Office. The report can be accessed on the web page www.nass.usda.gov/ny under New York Publications - Special Surveys.
